Project Report Delivery

- A CD contains following files
    1. Report word format (named Report.doc)
    2. Report in PDF format (named Report.pdf)
    3. A Folder named image, contains all the images (named Fig1, Fig2, …) , preferred TIFF, png format, jpeg format is not acceptable
    4. A folder named table, contains all the table or graph generated by excel in excel format
    5. A folder named reference, contains all the references named (ref1, ref2, …)
    6. A folder named presentation, contains the presentation file in PowerPoint format
    7. A folder named matlab, contains all the matlab and simulink codes (including init file)
    8. A folder named cadence, contains
        a. one file (zip, tar) the project library
        b. one file (zip, tar) the process/technology library
        c. cds.lib file
    9. A folder named extra, contains all other papers, course notes, links and extra supporting material that you have used to do the project.
    10. A folder named verify, contains turn-it-in and errnet report in pdf format
        a. Turnitin, dorpbox at D2L

- Write down your name, project title on the CD or on the cover.
- If your project does not have some of the listed material such as cadence or matlab please skip that part.
- Report has to be double column single space, times new roman font 10, IEEE Format
- Word template available here
    - http://www.ieee.org/documents/TRANS-JOUR.doc
- Authors list: my-name will appear as the last author in the list, no title such as Dr., Prof. or …
- Referencing
    - Do not reference any course note, Wikipedia pages
    - References has to be in standard IEEE format
    - More information about IEEE citation can be found here:
        - http://ams.sjsu.edu/ieeecitationref.pdf
    - Use Word crossing reference for the citation.
- Graphics must be in good quality and please check the graphics quality using IEEE free service at http://graphicsqc.ieee.org/
- Zip the entire CD material to a file named package.zip and upload it to dropbox at D2L